TWO ARRIVED FROM CALIFORNIA.
Large Yield of Gold—Destructive Fire in San Francisco—Serious Railway Accident on the Panam. Railroad.

New York, June 25.

The steamer George Law, with advices from San Francisco to the 2d inst., arrived at this port this morning. She brings $1,052,000 in gold on freight, and 714 passengers. The last train, when conveying the passengers across the Isthmus railway, and as it was descending the summit level, the coupling of one of the forward cars broke, causing a partiality for such villains as composed Murrell's gang, for it is said, that, during a couple of years, he has pardoned more felons out of the penitentiary of that State than all the other Governors of Tennessee ever did before him.

BUENA VISTA, June 24, 1855.

MR. EDITOR:—Yesterday being the day appointed for the candidates to speak at Stony Point school-house, and feeling a curiosity to hear what they would have to say, I went over. There was about fifty or sixty assembled, forty-five of whom I know to be members of the American Order.

Gen. Desia, being 'the noblest ROMAN of them all,' was the first to 'mount the forum,' (figuratively speaking,) and explain to 'this vast concourse (?) of my assembled countrymen the position I 'okkupy'—the position I wish to 'okkupy'—

and the GREAT question that 'okkupies'
the public mind, in doing which the Gen.
'okkupied' a great deal of time. He had a copy of the Constitution of the United States along, for what purpose we are profoundly ignorant, but judge from his remark that 'it was first principles,' 'every time I read it, like the Holy Bible, I find new beauties,' and so on, AD INFINITUM, that he carried it with him as a book of general reference. While the General is exploring the Constitution for 'new beauties,' if he will deign to receive instruction from SAM, we will refer him to one clause in that instrument that appears to be a 'HIDDEN beauty' to him, that provides for any change in the laws of the General Government, respecting the naturalization of foreigners, any time after the year 1808. The General can't quite expound the Constitution like Mr.
Webster could. He then attempted to defend the Catholic Church, but—well, to sum up his speech in a word, it was all
'FUDGE!'

Capt. NEWELL, a kind of Jack Falstaff, who instead of slaughtering foot-pads,
like Prince Hal's 'honest John,' made a most murderous assault on the King's English, and in a speech of about two hours length, he succeeded not only in taking its life, but baptised the body of his victim with the blood of Lindley Murray. The Captain spoke long and said nothing.

Mr. GLAIVE was the only one of the three that displayed good sense—he had nothing to say.

After they had occupied the whole evening, and, as they thought, excluded Mr.
FORRESTER from replying to them, they forsook the forum for their horses, and made a precipitate retreat. Mr. FORRE-STER, however, in a speech of twenty minutes, completely used up the two 'men of war,' and the natural consequence of Saturday's proceedings was the addition of TEN MEMBERS TO BUENA VISTA COUNCIL.

Yours truly, SAMUEL.

SCHOOL EXAMINATION.

MILLERSBURGH, Ky., June 23, '55.

DEAR MOREY:—It is with pleasure that I take my pen to-day to record one of the most brilliant triumphs for education which it has ever been my happy privilege to witness. I allude to the annual examination and commencement exercises of the Millersburgh Seminary, under the direction of Rev. Dr. George Savage and lady, assisted by an able and efficient corps of instructors. I feel proud of our State—for I have witnessed the examinations and been connected with some of the finest educational institutions in the New England States—the grand emporium of the galaxy of the Union, of literature, and yet I can safely say with the most sincere devotion to truth, and approval of conscience,
that I never yet have seen this examination surpassed by any of them for critical and close investigation of the progress of the pupils. It is proper to remark that every one of the able instructors are natives of our own State, and therefore I say I am proud that she is able to produce such. Dr. Savage is a gentleman and a Christian, and has endeared himself to patrons and pupils
by his sincere devotion to their mutual interests. His lady, Mrs. C. B. Savage, is possessed of a mind cast in the finest literary mould, and possesses the rare faculty of winning the affections of the pupil by her endearing graces. Miss Bright, the accomplished assistant in the music department, I believe to be one of the finest performers on the respective instruments I have yet seen. Mis Van-hook, your interesting towns-woman, has won a proud wreath of laurels for the efficient manner in which she has conducted the preparatory department.—
The "Maiden City" may be proud of such a daughter. The mathematical examination was round on Monday, trying to get some votes for Lieutenant-Governor. He wears a very tall white hat, a great deal of hair on his face, red breeches, and other outlandish habilments, which, we presume, he pulls off whenever he gets into what he considers a civilized part of the State. We advice his Harrodsburgh friends to send for him immediately, and dress him decently forthwith.

This same man arrived here late on last Sabbath evening, and soon retired to rest, doubtless, with the conviction that his "Sad Knight" friends in this section are few and far between. It was understood that he designed speaking here on some question, either on Monday or Tuesday, but he left early Monday morning, (not to return,) without telling his business. He may have concluded that he got into "a civilized part of the State,"

where his outlandish costume was not appreciated, and thought it prudent to take a bee-line to the mountains.

THE would as soon be found in the council of John A. Murrell as in a Know-Nothing Council."

This is from a speech of Mr. Andrew Johnson, the anti-American candidate for Governor of Tennessee. We should about as soon expect to see the author of such a remark in the clan of John
A. Murrell" as in any decent council.—
Gov. Johnson seems to have quite a partiality for such villains as composed Murrell's gang, for it is said, that, during

felons out of the penitentiary of that

How all Parties Stand.

Below we give the planks from the various platforms—American, Loco-foco, Abolition and Know Something—that defines the position of each party upon the Nebraska-Kansas Act, which is the most prominent test of love for the perpetuity of the Union, in these stirring times of political charlatanism. We ask our readers to read these various planks carefully, and form their own opinions, without prompting from us, or any one. We have an abiding faith in the patriotism and intelligence of the people of old Kentucky, and cheerfully leave them to draw their own conclusions from the following declarations of the various parties, on the good old Democratic doctrine of State Rights, which does not recognise the power of Congress to legislate upon the internal social affairs of any particular State or States.

The first plank is from the platform of the American Party, adopted at the recent session of the National Council, held in the city of Philadelphia.

And regarding it the highest duty to avow these opinions, upon a subject so important, in distinct and unequivocal terms, it is hereby declared, as the sense of this National Council, that Congress possesses no power under the constitution to legislate upon the subject of slavery in the States, or to exclude any State from admission into the Union because its constitution does or does not recognize the institution of slavery as a part of the social system, and expressly permitting any expression of opinion upon the power of Congress to establish or prohibit slavery in any Territory, it is the sense of this National Council that Congress ought not to legislate upon the subject of slavery as it exists in the District of Columbia, and that any interference of Congress with slavery, as it exists in the said District, would be violation of the spirit and intentions of the compact by which the State of Maryland ceded it to the United States, and a breach of the national faith.

The southern Loco-foco press call the party that avows the above sentiment 'Abolitionist.' We verily believe that if the Declaration of Independence was to appear in the columns of a Know-Nothing paper, on the 4th of July next, every Sag-Nicht sheet east of sun-down would brand it as an 'abolition dodge.'

By way of contrast to the above, here is a plank from the Democratic platform of Ohio:

"The people of Ohio, now, as they have always done, look upon slavery as an evil and unfavorable to the development of free institutions, and that entertaining these sentiments, they will at all times feel it to be their duty to use all power clearly given by the terms of the national compact, to prevent its increase, to mitigate and finally to eradicate its evils."

And, now, as an evidence of the boasted unanimity of the Democracy, North and South, look at this plank, which we extract from the platform adopted by the Democratic State Convention of Georgia:

"We adopt as our own the following resolution passed unanimously by the last legislature of Georgia:

"Resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Georgia, That opposition to the principles of the Nebraska bill in relation to the subject of slavery is regarded by the people of Georgia as hostility to the people of the South, and that all persons who partake in such opposition are unfit to be recognised as component parts of any party or organization not hostile to the South."

That is only two spots of the many-colored coat worn by the sham democracy. Now let us look at the colors thrown to the breeze by their abolition allies, under the command of Senator Wilson:

"The unconditional restoration of that time-honored compromise, known as the Missouri Prohibition, which was destroyed, with utter disregard to the popular will—a wrong no lapse of time can palliate and no plea for its continuance can justify—and we will use all Constitutional means to maintain positive guarantee of its compact, until the object for which it was enacted has been consummated by the admission of Kansas and Nebraska as free States."

The following were the delegates in the Philadelphia American Convention from Kentucky: Messrs. Wm. S. Pilcher, H. Grider, John W. Fennell, Jno. S. Williams, W. B. Mason, and E. B. Bartlett.

Dr. A. K. Marshall and James O. Harrison, Esq., candidates for Congress in this district, will address the citizens of Ruddell's Mills, Bourbon county, on Saturday next. The county candidates of Bourbon, we understand, will also be present.

County Canvas.

On Thursday last, Messrs. Desha and Newell addressed their fellow-citizens at Col. Berry's station; on Friday at Leroy Lewis's; and on Saturday at Stony Point, near Buena Vista. R. H. Forrester, Esq., followed in reply at each of the above places. His replies were replete with sound sense and able arguments. Mr. F. met and ably refuted the various charges which were urged against the American party; he denied that it was a proscriptive party. He asserted that it was not the object or intention of this party to interfere with the vested right or deprive any citizen, whether native or adopted, of any political privilege which he had heretofore enjoyed under the constitution and laws of the country. But those who were "native, and to the manor born," those who from infancy to manhood had been taught a love and veneration for the institutions of our country, and who studied the complex machinery of our government, were far better qualified for and infinitely more to be trusted with the management of our governmental affairs, than any foreigner whatever. Mr. Forrester denied that the American party was the enemy to RELIGIOUS liberty; he proclaimed that it was the zealous advocate of the most unlimited religious liberty; that it would rise up as one man to repel any encroachment upon the right of every citizen to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience; he denied that it was hostile to the Catholic religion, but he declared that its members, as a party, and as individuals, were determined to oppose the POLITICAL machinations of the Pope and the Church of Rome, and they claimed and would exercise the privilege, never hitherto denied, of withholding their suffrages from any one who believed in the dangerous dogma inculcated by that church, that allegiance to the Pope was a higher duty than obedience to the constitution and laws of the country.—

We regret to learn that Esquire A. Rutter, recently elected Magistrate, has been confined to his bed for some weeks with chronic rheumatism, and but little hopes are entertained of his recovery.

DRUNKEN.—On Saturday evening last a valuable negro boy, aged 20 years, belonging to Mr. Robbins, and who was hired to Mr. John M. Kimbrough, of this vicinity, was drowned, just at the old "Bridge," near Spohn's slaughter-house, while bathing in Licking river. It is supposed that he must have cramped, as he was a good swimmer. There were some other boys in with him, who gave the alarm, and great efforts were made to rescue him, but owing to the depth of the water, his body was not recovered until after it had been in the water some three hours.

DRUNKEN.—We learn that Mrs. Frazer and George Grigg, who were on trial at Lexington, last week, for the murder of the husband of the former, were acquitted on Saturday. The jury were out ten hours before they agreed upon their verdict.

SICK OF DISCUSSION.

The leaders of the Sag-Nicht, anti-American faction in this county, have been heretofore challenging the American party to discussion on the stump;—but it was all gammon, for the very moment they were met on the stump, every obstacle was attempted to be thrown in the way of free discussion; and on one occasion, a Sag-Nicht bully even attempted to stop an AMERICAN speaker by BRUTE force. We don't hear of any more challenges from the Sag-Nicht candidates "for ANY member of the American party to meet them on the stump." On the contrary, we see some of their candidates, as soon as they have delivered themselves, strike a "bee-line" for home, in order to break the personal force of a reply; but we can assure them that such a course of tactics won't win. If they "lay themselves open," they will be handled without gloves.

HON. Frederick P. Stanton, of Tennessee, a prominent Democratic member of Congress for some years past, is a member of the American Order, and made a speech at the American ratification meeting in New York last week. So we go; the best of the Democracy going with us.

The Albany (N. Y.) Register says that New York adopts the American platform, and that the party in that State "is this day a unit and were never stronger."

Willis G. Hughes is the American candidate for Congress in the first (Lynn Boyd's) district. Mr. H. has heretofore acted with the Democratic party.

A few days since, in Milford, Bracken county, a noisy individual was exceedingly vulgar in his denunciations of the "d—d Know-Nothings," and became so disgustingly obscene, that a gentleman, a citizen of Pendleton county, took him in hand and gave him a sound drubbing.

This gentleman will be met at Cynthiana by that gallant and glorious American, the Hon. Garrett Davis. A rich treat is in store for the occasion. We expect to see Sam on hand, with his indomitable sons.

Our Prospects.

Frequent inquiries are made as to the prospects of the American party in Harrison county. We tell our friends throughout this congressional district, that Harrison will roll up a majority in August for the American ticket, that will astound the political prophets who have been setting her down for 200 majority, for the Sag-Nichts.

Foreign Emigration.

The fruits of the great American movement are already seen, in the check which has been given to the tide of foreign emigration. One hundred and twenty thousand German emigrants have been deterred by it from coming to this country, this year. T. D'Arcy McGee, the champion of the Catholic Irish, is, also, successfully advising his countrymen to migrate to Canada instead of the United States, so as to concentrate their strength there, with a view to the future conquest of this country.

We do not object to a moderate emigration of well disposed foreigners to this country, as in the earlier days of the Republic. But of late years they have been coming too thick and fast for the safety of the country. The following table from the last census of the United States, will best illustrate the truth of our position:

1890 to 1890	50,000	1840 to 1840	579,419
1890 to 1890	70,000	1840 to 1850	1,677,330
1890 to 1890	114,000	1850 to June '55	1,736,531
1890 to 1890	135,986	42 years

LUSUS NATURE.—We were shown, a few days since, a curiosity, which was a young duck, having 4 legs, 4 wings and two heads, and bore other marks of being doubly formed. It did not live after being hatched.

We regret to learn that Esquire A. Rutter, recently elected Magistrate, has been confined to his bed for some weeks with chronic rheumatism, and but little hopes are entertained of his recovery.

DRUNKEN.—The Yeoman makes a desperate attempt to conceal his dismay, at the unexpected broadside we poured into his rotten political hulk, last week. He compares himself to a LOCOMOTIVE, and forthwith commences puffing and snorting, to make out that he really bears a resemblance to the iron horse. His performance is truly amusing—equal to any puppet show we ever saw. But, Mr. Locomotive, you won't do. You are a crazy, rickety machine, that can't make four miles an hour, with all the STEAM you can raise in your tea-kettle of a boiler. You can't make the trip by the first Monday in August, the time set down in the political time-table. You will then be seen lagging on the track, a hundred miles behind, without wood or water, and your machinery irreparably damaged.

The Yeoman has turned poet, and has written our epitaph. Shades of Homer and Milton, what a poet! His verse is as harmonious as the grinding of a cracked hand organ. The Pegassus he has mounted, is a long-eared animal of the Milesian breed. He is destined to cut a figure in some future DUNCIA.

The Yeoman wonders if our successor will be able to spell "Sag Nicht"!—If he has any difficulty in spelling the JAW BREAKER, we here recommend him to place himself under the tutition of the Yeoman, as the most distinguished professor of "German" in the Common wealth. As the organ of the Foreign party, we are sure that he is master of the dialect of his political supporters.—We might be induced to take a few lessons ourselves, if he would agree to throw in the "saur kraut and lager beer" (do we spell 'em right, professor?) without charge.

JUDGE James H. Birch, who recently recovered damages of Hon. T. H. Benton, of Missouri, for libel, was for many years a resident of Cynthiana, and studied medicine with Dr. McMillan, formerly a citizen of this place. If we mistake not, Mr. Birch afterwards studied law in the office of the late Judge John Trimble.

RETURNED.—Our friend A. H. VARNEY, Esq., the accomplished and clever landlord of the "Varney House," returned on Tuesday from St. Louis, whither he has been for some weeks, on business.—We are indebted to Mr. Varney, for St. Louis and Kansas newspapers, in advance of the mails.

DOG-KILLING.—Last week, some individuals who had more strychnine than charity for the canine race, scattered various bits of bread and meat around town, and numerous were the unsuspecting descendants of Canis that "partook thereof, and were killed." Some twenty-five "shuffled off this mortal coil." Persons having valuable dogs running at large, should take the precaution to muzzle them.

Temperance Convention.

The Temperance men of Harrison county will hold a convention at Oddville on Saturday next.

BISHOP FORSYTHE spoke in Frankfort on Tuesday evening last, and the Commonwealth speaks in very flattering terms of his subject. His subject was 'Political Popery.'

HON. Andrew Jackson Donelson, of Tennessee, the relative and friend of Gen. Jackson, was a member of the American convention. Mr. Donelson represented the United States as Minister to Berlin for four years, and has held other high posts of honor and confidence in the country.

Harrison Female Seminary—Commencement.

The commencement exercises of Mrs. L. A. ORMSBY's Harrison County Female Seminary, will take place at the Christian Church in Cynthiana, commencing to-day, Thursday, at 2 o'clock, P. M.—The order of exercises will be recitations and music during the day, and reading of compositions and music at night.—The exercises will close to-morrow (Friday) night. Prof. Sheidler's music class will be present, and take part in the exercises. We hope the citizens generally who take an interest in education, will attend and encourage by their presence the teachers who have labored so faithfully to build up this school, which is indeed an honor to Cynthiana and Harrison county. We intend to be on hand,

"Taking notes, an' faith, we'll print 'em."

Those accomplished teachers, Mrs. ORMSBY and Miss TABER, merit and will receive the thanks of this entire community, for their efforts in establishing the Harrison Female Seminary; for who does not see the happy influence which female education exerts over the morals of Cynthiana?

The Washington Union.

The "Union," which is the recognised organ of the Administration, has proposed that the Democratic party shall adopt a platform from which the subject of slavery shall be excluded. The object of this dodge is to effect a coalition with the Northern Abolitionists. The "Washington Sentinel," the other Democratic organ at Washington, but not in the pay of the Administration, says that the object of this scheme is to enable Greely, Giddings, & Co., to take their stand on the same platform with the Administration, to defeat the Know-Nothings.

REferences.

On Tuesday, the 26th inst., by the Rev. Carter Page, of the Episcopal Church, JAMES H. BIRCH, Jr., (second son of Hon. James H. Birch, of Missouri,) to Miss MARY B., daughter of J. V. Bassett, Esq., of this county.

[Missouri papers please copy.]

The happy and good-looking Miss Missouri remembered the painter, by enclosing a dollar with this no ice, (a very popular custom in Missouri,) and we must say that he has got a good bargain, for he has carried off one of the handsomest and most amiable daughters of old Harrison, and this, too, in spite of the "combined efforts" of our NATIVE young bloods.

We wish distinctly understood, however, that all Missourians are not allowed to carry off our pretty girls; the clever, wholesome young larks, only, of that State will be tolerated. Brother Page, as usual, performed the "rites" with becoming grace.

On Tuesday evening, 19th inst., at the Burnett House, Cincinnati, by Rev. Dr. Butler, Mr. D. A. GIVENS, Postmaster, at Cynthiana, Ky., to Miss MARGARET KELLAR, daughter of Col. A. KELLAR, of Harrison county.

On the 17th inst., by Elder Joseph S. CHAMBERS MCCLAIN, to Miss LUCY ANN TAYLOR, all of Harrison county.

On the same day, by the same, Mr. WILLIAM PAINTER to Miss MELINDA DOTSON, all of Harrison county.

DIED.

In Cynthiana, on the 19th inst., THOMAS WALTON, infant child of John and Mary A. Douglas, aged seven weeks.

THE CYNTHIANA NEWS.

SOME OF THE OBJECTS AND WHAT IS TO BE SEEN ON BULLARD'S PANORAMA OF NEW YORK CITY

The Panorama continues to move before the spectator for nearly two hours, and takes him over Six Miles through the streets of New York City, in the midst of its business—in places and through streets which to a stranger would be of most interest, and he would be most likely to visit; and while he is apparently passing along, he has extended perspective views of the buildings on both sides of upwards of Fifty Streets—which collectively being about forty miles of buildings—giving him a view of the City and its People, as it would appear to him if he were to go there, and walk through the streets, among the people, the bustle and confusion of Our Empire City. He will have a faithful and exact view of the magnificent Churches, public and private Buildings, the Shipping and Steamboats, Horses and Carriages Omnibuses, Railroad Cars, and the Thousands of People who daily throng the streets of New York. Distinguished men and acquaintances are readily recognized among the crowd of persons in the streets. The signs can be read the same as if you were in the city, as all are faithfully represented upon this painting—public and private processions, Military Companies, Firemen and their Engines Bands of Music, &c., &c. While the Panorama moves before the spectator, over 756 Horses and Carriages pass in view, and more than 10,000 of the people of the city, at their daily business.

It is impossible to state all that is to be seen in this moving painting. Persons in viewing it can hardly persuade themselves that they are not actually in the city among its business and bustle—viewing the citizens and strangers, as they really are, in every day life, at their avocations; and persons unacquainted in New York city, will get a better view, and Gain more Information of the city and its people, by once seeing this Panorama, than they would to actually visit the city and walk its streets and thoroughfares for ten days, as thousands of persons have testified.

At each exhibition of the Panorama, as it passes before the spectator, an Explanatory Lecture will be given by Mr. GEORGE DOEL, one of the proprietors, or Mr. Albert Norton, or D. C. Damon—illustrative of New York City, its statistics, business and resources—its people, their “go-ahead-ative-ness,” manners and customs—much valuable knowledge of great importance to a stranger and of general and instructive information to EVERYBODY.
